

WRC 2018 Year-End Awards

Year-end banquet held on November 3, 2018.

Points are earned by a horse / rider combination. Each horse / rider combo is required to have a unique number. This number is used for the season to track points. These points are not transferable if horse or rider are injured/ unsound or otherwise unable to compete.

Year-end Show Series Awards: Points are automatically tracked. The Williamsport Riding Club offers 4 show series in order to earn year-end division points: The Children's Show, Schooling Dressage, Friday Night Gaming and Open Show Series. Riders may select one Pleasure, one Gymkhana and any Open divisions in which to compete. See series show flyer for division details. The overall highest points earned within each division is awarded Grand Champion followed by Reserve. Riders must indicate their choice of division(s) at the beginning of the show in order to collect points. All series shows count equally for points. Club membership is not required to collect points for series day end or year end series awards. (Membership is required to earn points for Member Division and Member Over All Top 10 Awards.)

Year-end Member Division Awards: The Williamsport Riding Club offers three categories to earn year-end member division points (Pleasure, Gymkhana and Open). All disciplines compete for the overall highest points earned within each division. Members may select one division in the Pleasure, one division in the Gymkhana and any divisions that apply in Open. Members must indicate their choice of division(s) at the first event in which to collect points.

Year-end Member Top 10 Awards- Points on an individual horse rider combination are tallied all show series points and the Open & Warm up classes count for this award.
