Day-End High Point Division Awards (14): A championship and reserve will be awarded after each division. To qualify for a day end high-point championship award for this series, riders will collect points in the indicated classes above.

1st = 6 points 2nd = 5 points 3rd = 4 points 4th = 3 points 5th = 2 points 6th = 1 point along with one point for every class entered within the division. Riders must ride two eligible tests in a level to be eligible for a high point division award.

Series Year End High Point Awards (14): Points will be tallied for each of the three shows. A champion and a reserve will be awarded in each division. If competition is heavy a 3rd place may be awarded. The horse/rider combination collecting the highest number of points within all three show will be the champion. The Year-end awards banquet on Saturday November 7th, 2020.

Dressage Year End WRC Member High Point Awards: Three member divisions, Junior rider age 13 and under and Senior 14 -18 and Adult. Grand and reserve will be awarded in both divisions. For overall year end Dressage member awards, all points from this show series, along with one point for every class entered, will count for the appropriate age high point (Ages as of 1/1/20). To qualify memberships must be received at or before show earning points. See website and membership form for other member qualifications.

Dressage Seat Equitation: These classes are judged on the rider's position, seat and specifically the correct use and effect of the aids. The riders will go into the ring and simultaneously perform each gait at the judge's direction. The riders will be judged on equitation that is expected to be seen in a dressage test.

Dressage Suitability: To be held as a flat class with all horses in the arena together. The riders will go into the ring and simultaneously perform each gait at the judge's direction. Horses will be judged and placed for the horse most suitable for dressage.
